

The California Classical Association North

ANNUAL AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN CLASSICS WRITING

Application deadline: May 31, 2015

This award recognizes a piece of writing that addresses a general interest in Classics to a wide audience of Classics scholars and enthusiasts and that is accurate, engaging and elegant.

Essay submissions of between 750 and 1500 words should be ready to publish (free of mechanical and formatting errors), and, if part of a longer piece of academic writing, should be edited appropriately for a wide audience so that the essay can be appreciated intelligibly in its shorter form.

We will read and consider all entries of appropriate length, and awards may be granted at more than one level.

Submission Details:

- Eligibility: This award may be granted to any current student of Classics at a secondary, collegiate, and/or graduate level institution in California or Nevada.
- Include a cover sheet with the following information:
 1. Your name and address
 2. Your email address
 3. The name and address of your school
 4. Your academic level for the 2014-2015 year
 5. The name(s) of your current Classics teacher(s) or professor(s).
- Include no identifying information in the body of the essay.
- Please send your submission and cover sheet by e-mail to:
applications.ccanorth@yahoo.com. Include "Classics Essay Entry" in the subject line.
Please submit only .doc, .docx, .rtf, or .pdf files.
- Essays will be judged on the basis of their thoughtfulness, creativity, style, and appeal to wide audience, and should be free of grammatical and typographical errors.
- There will be a cash prize of $250 for each winning entry, and prizes may be awarded at each level, depending on the quality of the entries.
- The winning essay(s) may be published on the CCA North website and in an edition of the CCA Newsletter.
- All entrants will be granted membership in CCA North for the 2015-2016 year.
- Winners will be notified by the President of CCA by mail and/or e-mail, and will be recognized publicly at the Fall 2015 CCA conference.
